UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE

NOTICE OF RIGHT TO CONSENT TO DISPOSITION OF A CIVIL CASE BY A UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

In accordance with the provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 636(c), you are hereby notified that the United States Magistrate Judges of this district court, in addition to their other duties, may, upon the consent of all the parties in a civil case, conduct any or all proceedings in a civil case, including a jury or non-jury trial, and order the entry of a final judgment. Copies of appropriate consent forms for this purpose are available from the clerk of the court.

You should be aware that your decision to consent, or not to consent, to the reassignment of your case to a United States Magistrate Judge for disposition is entirely voluntary and should be communicated solely to the clerk of the district court. No Judge or Magistrate Judge will be informed of a party's refusal to consent to trial of a case before a Magistrate Judge. If a consent form is not filed within twenty (20) days of the date that all parties have filed an answer or otherwise responded, the court will deem that failure as evidence that the parties wish that the cause of action proceed before the district judge to whom the case was assigned at the time it was originally filed. Should all the parties subsequently consent to trial by a magistrate judge, however, the district judge may in his/her discretion so order.

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(c), appeal to the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit from a judgment of a Magistrate Judge is permitted in the same manner as an appeal from any other judgment of the Court.
